This well-kept villa can be found in the peaceful Girasoles area of Cumbre del Sol. It's nestled in a tranquil residential street, not far from the greenery. The property is split into two levels, with separate entrances from the street for each floor. The upper floor has a detached garage and two pedestrian gates. Entering the villa, you first come across a glazed naya, which serves as a relaxing area, then a spacious entrance hall. On the left, there's a double bedroom and a large master bedroom, both with wardrobe space. To the right, you'll find the living/dining room with a cozy wood-burner, and a renovated shower room with...(Ask for More Details!)
