This house is perfectly located in the port's center, just 50 meters from all the essential amenities and the lovely La Grava beach. It boasts top-notch construction with fine details such as marble and porcelain stoneware floors, aluminum windows with a tilt-and-turn system, and sliding balconies made of chambered safety glass. The bathrooms are equipped with high-quality Grohe taps and suspended toilets, while the main bathroom features toilets by Philip Starck and a custom-made railing by designer David Marshal. The layout of the house is spread over four levels. The basement is dedicated to relaxation with a spa area that includes a jacuzzi, sauna, and gym. On the upper...(Ask for More Details!)
